JStengel Consulting Picked to Be Watchguard Training Partner

JStengel Consulting is pleased to announce that we have been picked as a Watchguard Certified Training Provider. We are very excited about this as we believe Watchguard makes the best Firewall and VPN appliances in the market.

We will start off by offering classes in Charlotte, NC, Milwaukee, WI and Denver, CO. We plan to expand into other markets as it grows.

Please see our website for the current schedule and locations.
